

Personal Data Protection

As a concerned person I express my voluntary consent to process, maintain and store my personal data in the range necessary for mediation of the job, especially my name, surname, date of birth, permanent address, degree, achieved education, contact information(phone number, eventually fax number, e-mail address), language and computer skills or other information listed in CV and other attached documents in compliance with Regulation 2016/679 GDPR(hereinafter as "personal data"). Hereby I confirm that all information stated in this document are correct.

The main purpose of processing, maintaining and storing your personal data is their registration for the implementation of pre-contractual relations and suitable job placement (also repeated) with future prospective employers. The first job placement shall not be considered the fulfillment of the purpose of personal data processing but finalizing of continuous job placement carried out by the operator shall be(as defined below)

Your personal data will be used for the purpose of the job search carried out by the company KF Partners Ltd. CRN 46642218, with the seat at Strážna 9, 831 01 Bratislava, as an operator of personal data processing (hereinafter as „the operator“)

The consent is given for the limited 3 years' period as of the day of inception OR unless you withdraw the consent.

Your consent is revocable anytime with the operator stated above, through the same form as the consent is given(via e-mail, filling out the form on the web page)

Only potential employers will be provided with the inevitable range of your personal data within the fulfillment of the above- mentioned purpose of their processing. Your personal data as your name, surname, address, date of birth may be provided to the Labour authorities in compliance with § 28 (1) (b) of Act no. 5/2004 coll on employment services.

The operator is obliged to provide you with the information about the processing state of your personal data in their information system and about the source providing them your personal data. The data shall be corrected, deleted. The right for personal data processing is revocable anytime.